Key Findings & Strategic Recommendations

- Gender-Specific Sales: Women are the largest customer segment, contributing to approximately 64% of total sales.
- Implication: Marketing campaigns and product development should prioritize women's preferences and styles to maintain this core audience.
- Top Performing Categories: The "Set" and "Kurta" categories show the highest order volume compared to other clothing types.
- Implication: The business should ensure consistent stock levels for these items and consider introducing new designs within these popular categories.
- Key Sales Channels: While Amazon is a major driver, Flipkart and Myntra also contribute significantly to the overall order count.
- Implication: Diversify promotional efforts across all top three platforms (Amazon, Flipkart, and Myntra) rather than relying solely on one.
- Order Fulfillment: Approximately 92% of orders are successfully delivered, while about 3% are cancelled and 2% are returned.

Conclusion

- The store has a strong, loyal female customer base.
- By focusing on Adult Women via Amazon/Flipkart and managing
- inventory for the March peak, the store can maximize profitability.
